“ *Travis, Amy, and Adam,
I can't begin to imagine the loss you must be feeling. Your mother was an amazing woman. She was a huge part of my mothers life and therefore was loved by us all. I can remember as a child, mom telling stories of the shenanigans that she and Barbara would get into along with countless other cousins. Barbara was always so special to her. Amy, I feel your loss most especially. Please know that we are praying for you all and that God has a bigger plan. Can you imagine how the angels sang and the family rejoiced as she joined them in their heavenly home?! It must have been a celebration like no other. We love you all.*

I miss her already.. Barbara was so very dear to me. I loved her so very much. I will always have memories of sitting in the sunroom with her as we rocked and talked about things that we use to do. There was never a more dear friend than Barb. She was one of the funniest people I know and could make good out of the most undesirable situation. I am comforted by the fact that she is with God now and is enjoying all of what Heaven has to offer. She loved antiques and no one has more antiques than our sweet Lord. :) Travis, Amy and Adam...we are here for you at any time, day or night. Just call. You three are very dear to us.

*We love you all ,
Al and Shelta*
