“ Becky always had a beautiful smile. She was fun to be around. I remember her singing at the Variety Show at THS. I can still remember one of the songs she sang and think about her when I hear it.

“ Becky was a loving and kind cousin of mine. We played in the draw as children and had so much fun. We would climb to the top of the draw (only after Grandma told us watch for snakes every single time we left the house) dragging quilts and supplies. We would then sit inside the shallow white caves and have tea parties. We would play hide and seek all the way around the house. Screaming and full of joy. She will forever be a part of our hearts. She loved daisies and always had a beautiful smile ❤️

I have many fond memories of Becky. She was so kind and her smile lit the room. Prayers for the family and sending lots of love your way.

“ When we think of Becky, we always smile. She could always make an uncomfortable situation, into to the funniest stories. No matter if it was on a FHA trip, last one out of the gro. store one night. Maybe at a tractor pull, going to their room on an elevator. Maybe at a skating rink in Clovis. Helping an older lady put on a pair of panty hose. She was always a joy to be around.

“ Becky and I were nannies together in Dallas many years ago. We had so many adventures together when we lived in Dallas. There was the time we went to find a yogurt shop and we ended up on the wrong side of town. Yes it was scary but later we would laugh about it. Then there was the time she flew out to CA to visit me, we went to the beach. We ate a whole flat of strawberries between the two of us. Becky you will be missed . I love you.

I loved reading these comments later in Becky's life. Her laughter and genuine smile were everyone's favorite.

RIP Becky. ❤️
