“ I've just learned of Bill's passing. I have so many memories of our families while I was growing up - at the lake, sleepovers, or just hanging out. May you all find peace in your memories.

“ What can I say about Bill? Well lots of things. We met at Armadilla Lanes many years ago. Little did I know...for a long time that he was Cindy's Dad. He was a character and loved to talk. So he and I got along great. He was one of my bowling buds. He loved to bowl. I will always remember that lil rooster. And I will miss knowing he is no longer with us. Cindy and Pat, and family, I am sorry for your loss. I know your pain. But. The Lord and your love and memories will carry you thru. He is at peace now although you are not. But, time will heal alot of that. Yall are always in my heart.
