“ Bobby was my husband's uncle. We loved him and grandson Jason spending Christmas with us last year. He loved every minute of the grandkids, family and of course the dogs he fed alot of ribs to. It was a joy and we hoped for another. We love ya Bobby fly high and give Charles and Mary Ann a hug!!

“ I often fished with Bobby many years back along with my Uncle Arlis Corley. He was a man that anyone would enjoy riding the river with. Those were the good times that we should all remember with fondness when it came to Bobby. MW McCarley
