“ It's been years since I've seen the family and I've been looking, but just seeing this for the first time today. May God surround this family with His presence, His Love and provide for every need they have. Brooke welcomed me as Pam's sister in their home, a very loving home. The years go by faster every day, and I pray if anyone sees this post, they would help us reconnect! Pam, Jason, Amanda and Michael, there is never a day that goes by that I don't think about you. My prayers are with you and all your families.
