

Clarence H. Weaver

August 8, 1946 - November 22, 2018

Clarence H. Weaver passed away November 22, 2018 in Tyler. He was born August 8, 1946 in Jacksonville, TX. Mr. Weaver was a lifelong resident of Rusk and retired from Rusk State Hospital after many years of service and also worked at Brookshire Brothers for five plus years.

There will be no services.

Tribute Wall

“ Clarence H. Weaver

October 04, 2023 at 11:30 AM

“ So very sorry to read about Buddy's death. We both were clarinet players in the Rusk High School Band. When I knew him, he was my knight in shining armor but we lost touch when he went away to Stephen F Austin University and I went on to a career in journalism then in dignitary protective services. Our mothers both worked together at Rusk State hospital. I wish I could hug you all. I only have good memories of him when we were both in high school and the world, although chaotic, was full of possibilities never realized as it turned out. God bless you.

Anonymous - September 24, 2019 at 12:35 PM

“ Rain Mist sent a virtual gift in memory of Clarence H. Weaver

Rain Mist - January 22, 2019 at 12:50 PM

Rain
Mist

“ *Rain Mist lit a candle in memory of Clarence
H. Weaver*

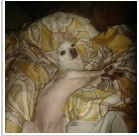

Rain Mist - December 06, 2018 at 03:26 PM

BJ

“ God Bless.

Betty Jo - November 27, 2018 at 12:34 PM

“ Clarence is my best friend we had alot of fun I miss him so much

Daniel Parker - November 23, 2018 at 05:21 PM

PD

“ Buddy~I enjoyed our conversations; altho I do not understand SyFi~and urged you to talk with DCP or N about these subjects! Those of us who were in the band have good memories of those experiences...and your always jovial remarks~PMD

Paula M. Dickerson - November 23, 2018 at 03:39 PM