“ Don was my senior by four years but never hesitated to communicate with me on a common level as a friend. I spent many nights after work riding around, as we of small towns did, in his Dodge Coronet 500 before I had a car of my own. We had double dates on occasion and worked together at Manning's Grocery for four years. He was ever kind to a young man, such as me, and I learned to love him as a true friend. When I moved to Alto, a few years ago, his door was open to my wife and me and he attended our church with us and was active in worship and fellowship with our church. A kinder man I have never known and will truly miss him until that day when I go to meet him in the Lord's presence. I extend my prayers and sympathy to his family and friends. Wyatt Tisdale.
