“ Being Edward's Aunt, he was 6 months old (I was 13) when my brother brought his family home to Missouri from Vietnam to live with us. I watched him grow into a caring, loving, ambitious, hard working young man. Always a ready smile (oh those cute dimples!!!) and a sparkle in his eyes. Ride your Harley all over those heavenly highways Edward. I love you and you'll forever be missed.

“ Little mischievous Edward.....when he and his aunt Gwenna Mueller came to visit us here in Knoxville Tennessee...may have been 12 years old...he and his cousin, my son Charles Covington, decided to light firecrackers one day while I was at work...

They lit the fence on fireand Gwenna had to carry water to douse the fire.

I think of that when I think of Edward...

Always that mischievous grin....Now reunited with Johnny, Grandpa and Grandma Mueller.
