“ Thank you for loving ❤️ my momma the way you did for all these years! Even though it was later in the years you were part of our lives, thank you for being the best father a girl could ask for and papaw to our kids. You'll always be remembered as someone that always cared and loved to no end. XOXO

“ Any time I needed him, he was there. Wheather it was fixing my tire or helping me remodel something. Anytime I needed to work or go somewhere, he was happy to keep the girls. He used to pick the girls up from half day daycare and feed them crispedos until I got off work. Those girls sure do love their Papaw and he loved them. Life will not be the same.
