“ *Dear Hudspeth Family,
Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one James. Although I never knew him personally, death is still something that touches us all because it hurts deeply. What has proven to be a source of comfort to me during times like these are the promises found in the Holy Scriptures. God promises that one day in the near future he will reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, happiness, and perfect health. (Job 14:14,15; Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:9-11,29;Isaiah 33:24) In fact He has even promised that he will eliminate death forever along with any painful memories that we may have.(Isaiah 25:8;Isaiah 65:17) I have learned to place my complete trust and confidence in His promises because it is impossible for Him to lie.(Isaiah 55:10,11) May these Scriptural promises prove to be a source of comfort to you and help to make your present pain a little easier to bear in the days to come. My deepest sympathy to you.*

“ James David, I used to pick on you a lot and you used to pick on me a lot when we were little. I think I might have been a little jealous when you came along. I had been Biggie's baby. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to grow up with you. I love you. Janice
