“ *Hello family, I served with your father in St. Louis, Missouri. He was a man of his word and a bit demanding. I remember one funny instance when he could not get his glasses to fit properly so he made his own impression of his ears. Then he made a copy of them out of plastic, fitted them to his glasses and they worked out great. My wife back then Ingrid and I had him and Iris over to our home for dinner. Ingrid made pork chops for dinner. It was a nice time. They lived in University City then, a suburb of St. Louis. I see he went on to have a nice big family and hopefully Iris is still around so you can tell her this. God bless you all.
