

Jesse Rogers Latner

December 2, 1945 - February 20, 2019

Graveside services for Jesse R. Latner, 73, of Tyler, will be 11:00 a.m., Friday, February 22, 2019 at Providence Cemetery of Dialville under the direction of Wallace-Thompson Funeral Home. The Eulogy will be read by Walter Dale Latner.

Mr. Latner passed away February 20, 2019. He was born December 2, 1945 in Hale County, Alabama to the late Howard and Annie Luciel Latner. He enjoyed fishing and hunting. He spent much time just being outside.

He is survived by children, Brax Wayne Lobb of Rusk, Wanda Kay Latner-Bellah and her husband Jeremy Bellah of Houston, grandson, Joel Spencer Lobb of Jacksonville, brother, Walter Dale Latner of Jacksonville, sister Judy Thompson of Tecula, and lots of nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Jesse Rogers Latner

October 04, 2023 at 11:30 AM

“ His favorite song was Satin sheets he played it so much that Wanda Kay and I was didn't even want to hear it anymore

Glenda Rogers/Latner - February 21, 2019 at 04:31 PM

“ Anytime I saw him he would sing the old song “oh donna” by Ritchie Valens. That’s my memory of Uncle Jesse. Enjoy the reunion with Daddy, Uncle Ander, Uncle Gene, Uncle Jerry, Uncle Jerald, Uncle Howard, And Aunt Pearl. I’m sure it will be a party.

Donna Greenmyer - February 20, 2019 at 04:56 PM

So sorry to hear this. I remember him well.

Linda Tate Cunningham - February 22, 2019 at 12:33 AM