“ *Such a shock.
Kay was a dear friend. My favorite place to stay in Rusk was in the Elvis room. I interviewed her several times for my radio program and spent a wonderful evening by the fire while she regaled me with stories about being Elvis's hairdresser. That conversation eventually ended as a CD album. I miss her great voice. I miss her great Texas accent and her wonderful stories. I'm so glad the movies allowed a wide audience for her.

“ Kay cut our hair, waving those hands in the air, cigarette in one hand, scissors in the other, and a story coming from her the size of Texas. Kay loved Life, loved Stories, loved Elvis ~ and loved Big. Kay brought Deborah & Donna into the world ~ beautiful, loving beings, my dear friends & sisters by marriage. Kay Baby, there is no one else like you.
"You fret ~
What music will you leave behind?
What scent? What memory?
My darling, you are forever woven in the galaxial fabric.
You are here.
You cannot leave.
A slender thread in all there is.
Forever woven in all there is." ~ Joanne Marie

“ Kay Baby Epperson was a woman bigger than life and had a truly unique personality. I have known her husband Gary, who is my best friend for many years. Susan and I have seen and heard Gary share his love, pride and respect for Kay and her many accomplishments. It is our loss to never hear her voice again when calling their home. We look forward to seeing her and hearing her treasured voice, in her many movies. She has been a warm and valued friend.

“ *Deborah and Donna,
Having grown up with Kay, I have so many fond memories of good times in Rusk. Life back then was fairly quiet (until Kay arrived on the scene) when we all knew everything about each other. Those were the best years! Love to y'all!*

I grew up with Kay along time ago on Sycmore Street we have been close since always stayed in touch even when she was in Mississippi when she had Beverly and I had Jeanne army baby's. I will love her always. Our last words were when she was in Hospital .She told me she loved me and I had got to tell her I was able to tell her I loved her.

*I remember my first time in Las Vegas going through McCarran Airport in 1978. I was strolling along with my cousin Horace Grogan and someone yelled my name in this strange place.
It was Kay Reynolds and her daughter Debbie. I was far far away from Rusk, and people were yelling my name. If you go through McCarran you will experience a major culture shock if you are from the sticks like me. How did they recognize me, I don't know, but they did. They are good people.*

What a blessing and light in our lives to have had Kay Baby as long as we did. I only knew her about 5 yrs. When I saw her in the movie BERNIE, I knew I must represent her. I became Kay's talent agent and the fun began for me for sure! What a joy to work with this sharp witted, smart, sassy, bright star! I had SO many actors that were honored to have worked with her. Anyone in the entertainment industry that worked with Kay felt her force and talent and love. Kay Baby, you will live on in our hearts and in the movies! Staying tuned! Our love and prayers to you and your family.

“ Kay was so special to me and my life...always generous and kind. She was there for us when my father passed away several years ago, and she has been there for so many others at similar times. She was one of a kind, and most definitely will be missed, especially by me and so many others. Her journey has not ended, and may she rest in peace with The Lord Jesus.
