“ When Lois and I were living in ATOY we shared many happy days playing together. When were older we go to spend 2 weeks with uncle Ochar & aunt Bertha Murray Jackson. Our buddies was Helen Jackson which got us into trouble. Aunt BIRTHA took us to a creek to go swimming which was great fun back the. I was born in Aug 30, 1929 and she was born in October 7, 1929. Our Mothers were sisters and our Fathers wee brothers. I lived in a house behind the Methodis for the Afarigan Americans and use to slip out and go to church. We lived in a time when we could walk to our house with out some one taking us. We had swing of rope hanging from the tree in the front yard . The Sack for us to sit on was made of Toe sacks and filled with toe asks. We would push each other to see which one could get the other one the highest. Through all the years we have stayed close until our health slowed us down. She is in Heaven singing with the angels and looking down on us. She has no pain, no sorrow , no sadness or teas. Just wearing her wings and singing to God praises.
Robert E. Murray. Double First Cousin of Lois Jones.
