“ Susan was a very special person, always living her life to the fullest. At school she was the life of the party, I don't ever recall her being sad, but full of life and hope. In the springtime she always attended the different memorial services held at the local churches. I know her family will miss her in the days to come, but just know that she is walking on the streets of Gold, where the walls are of Jasper and the gates are of Pearl, walking with her Lord and Savior. One day you will meet with her again.

“ Mama Susan will always hold a special place in my heart, she always treated me as one of her own. Even if Jennifer never ate eggs, she always made me a special batch, she was just that type of mother ❤️ Watching out for us all. Heaven gained another angel and until we meet again her memory will always put a smile on my face.
