She was born Nancy Ann Greene in Teague, Texas on April 15, 1935. As a girl, she was a pianist and completed all levels of Girls Auxiliary in her family's church, Cloverleaf Baptist Church in Houston. She graduated from Galena Park High School in 1954. She married JoEd Anderson on June 2, 1956 and worked as an executive secretary for Prudential Life Insurance until she became a mother in 1958. She was a founding member of Second Baptist Church of Cloverleaf, where she worked part-time as the church secretary from 1956 to 1970. her 45 years of singing in the church choir. She was deeply connected to her family and regularly attended annual reunions of the Curtis family. She took pride in the accomplishments of her sons, Danny Anderson, President of Trinity University in San Antonio since 2015, and Craig Anderson, Pastor of Worship for Foothills Baptist Church in Phoenix since 1997.
