Her deep and abiding faith in the Lord was the foundation of her life and shone brightly in her service, kindness, and unwavering devotion to her family and church.

A passionate gardener and proud Master Gardener, Nancy found beauty and joy in nurturing life. She was a gifted seamstress, talented artist, and avid reader. For over 50 years, she was an active member of both the Armstrong Book Review and the Park Cities Baptist Book Club. She also gave generously of her time, volunteering in the Park Cities Baptist Church Library and participating in the church's Language and Culture program. Above all, Nancy found her greatest joy in spending time with her children and grandchildren, whom she adored.
