“ Tomorrow July 2, 2023 is my Aunt Ollie's Birthday. Happy Birthday in heaven Aunt Ollie! I love you so so so much and I miss you to the moon and back. I miss visiting you and chatting with you about all of the relatives I never met. I miss thanksgiving dinners and your "heavenly brownies" and your delicious "Corn Willy" that you made after Uncle Joel had his heart surgery. I think about you often and I will always cherish the moments in my life that I spent time with you. I love you and misss you so much. Pamela Hope Patterson

“ I was privileged to be Joel and Ollie's pastor for a number of years. They were always supportive. Ollie was always attentive to my preaching. Once I mentioned my 5th grade teacher and the role he played in my life and a few weeks later she brought him to church to hear me preach and reconnect. It was always a special day when they arrived at the church in Joels old car . . . . Sometimes I think she did it just for Joel though. I enjoyed talking PISD with her . . . . she seemed to know all the inside stories on my teachers though I never attended a school where she taught. They both blessed Susan and my life. Condolences to Helen and Jan.

“ Ollie and Joel were my Aunt and Uncle. My mother was Dorothy Ella LaGrone Patterson. I did not see Ollie and Joel or Helen and Jan very many times when I was young, but I lived in Houston in 1980 and visited them then. I moved to Lufkin for 2 years in 1993 and visited Ollie and Joel several times. They were always the warmest, nicest, most sincere people I ever met. Ollie was a wonderful Aunt. I am just sorry I did not see her and Joel and Helen and Jan many, many more times.
