“ When I was 5 years old I lost my real mother to a brain aneurysm, At 20 years old I met Pat Sharp we started working together, after that it was history she became my mother and I her daughter she filled so many holes in my life I can never thank her more for that. Pat and Wayne have been a very big part of me and my family. I was lucky enough to have two moms one who gave me life another who became my life I am grateful to both. Thank you Pat for giving a momless girl the best mom in the world I love you always.
