“ I remember once when I had gone to Jacksonville to pick up a part for our car at the junkyard on 79 and the car broke down on the way there. Uncle Richard was in from Houston visiting so when I called the house he came out to get pick me up. We were going to head on the the junkyard but instead I took him all the way to Palestine because I got lost....he never got upset he just laughed....and never let me live it down.
