“ I may not have been close to him or his family, but he has brought comfort to me and my friend in our classes. He has helped us through some hard times and we are thankful for that. We wish him the best in the next life.

“ Roy was such always so much fun, I would come over to spend the night with you, Pam! I remember him and your sweet mama taking me on day trips and to church if y'all whenever I would come over! And They would just pack all us kids up in that big SUV y'all had! He always made me laugh, And he was someone that would always think of the needs of others, including mine!! So grateful that he was a part of my life and that you had one of the best daddy's ever! I love you and your whole family! Praying for y'all, Sandy Trainum

“ To my Uncle Wendell and his family How much you are missed and how much you have given of yourself to all who surround you.

Almost every memory of my East Texas childhood includes you, Ann, Roy Wayne, Pam, David.

*Swimming the irrigation pond in Grapeland, water skiing in Lake Palestine, Ann board skiing (which no one else could master), running trot lines and catching your 50lb catfish, fishing the Trinity and helping me reel in my 10lb catfish, fishing Lake Palestine, camping the inter coastal waterway near Rockport. Taking the home electronic course with my Dad and the thrill of seeing playing with my cousins during those times. Honda QA 50's and you riding it from Palestine to Frankston donning a hard hat to make sure it was there for your children on Christmas. Six Flags Over Texas, Mardi Gras and Roy Wayne hoisting me on his shoulders to catch more beads. Cookie. Pam with her Pixie and calling her Ralph.
Pinocchio!! Countless Christmas and Thanksgivings and the coziness of the lake house, the games and puzzles with a pot roast cooking and butane heaters keeping us warm.*

Writing your Book on “The Life of Tobe and Joe”

Your warmth, love, laughter cast a magnificent protective umbrella over our families, the bonds of which will never be broken. Those childhood memories, as clear and vivid as if yesterday, sustain me during the difficult times and will be forever ingrained until I am called from this world.
