“ Roy was the genuine article, a one-of-a-kind, accent on the word "kind," as he was most definitely that, as well as generous in every way, with his praise, his service to others, and his unselfishness in so many areas of his life here in Rusk, a town he loved and to which he gave so much of himself for many years. I was most privileged and honored to be considered his friend.

“ Roy was a treasure and a friend. I loved singing at Cherokee Civic Theater with him at the piano. I loved hearing his stories of playing music while he was in the service and all the amazing people he met throughout his career. I'm so sad that I won't get to sing with him again. I will miss his great smile and friendly hug every time we met. I'm praying for Penny and his family. Tiffany Hammock
