“ I met Susie my junior year at Sam Houston State. We had the same minor, which was Reading so we had a lot of classes together. She was incredibly smart, talented and funny. I loved her dearly and am beyond sad to learn of her death. She was truly one of a kind.

“ Susie and I were roommates at UNT. Although we haven't kept in touch like we should, I will always cherish the memories that we made. I loved her spunky personality and contagious laugh. She was a lot of fun to be around. I have thought of her often after hearing of her passing and pray for peace for her family as I know this has to be such a difficult time. Sincerely, Beth Huffman Compton
