

Tamara Maness

July 17, 1962 - February 10, 2023

Tammy Maness left this earth on Friday, February 10, 2023 at the age of 60. She was born in Sioux City, Iowa on July 17, 1962 to Richard and Bettie Nielsen.

Tammy was blessed with only one child, Katie in 1987. She then met and married her wild Texan, Don during a blizzard on Halloween night in 1991.

Tammy loved helping others and never met a stranger. She had more “adoptive” kids than one can count. Her kitchen table was where you came to for a nonjudgmental ear, an encouraging word and true unconditional love. Tammy was someone who was selfless and kind and touched more people than she knew. She was outgoing, loving and a true class clown.

Tammy is preceded in death by her beloved, Phillip Don Maness, her parents Richard and Bettie, a nephew David Robert Craighead, and her ornery cat Sampson.

Left to cherish her memory are daughter Katie Nielsen and wife Adrienne, Sister Cyndee Craighead and brother-in-law Robert, two nieces, and her close Texas pseudo family that she created and treasured.

Her daughters would love to receive your favorite stories and memories of her. You can send cards and well wishes to- 321 C.R. 3702, Bullard, TX 75757

Tammy was never a boastful woman, and she didn't want her death to be. To honor her memory, remember to be kind to the ones you meet, be patient, and always love unconditionally.

“ Oh Mama, one of the hardest things with me changing jobs was not seeing you every day & getting to greet you...”Good Morning Madre!” Then we would chat about whatever & when you would go to leave, it was always “Bye Madre, have a great day!! See you in the morning!” Your smiling face helped me so much in losing my own mom. So bye Madre, I’ll see you later, watch over us.....we need it! 💔
