“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*

I'm so sorry for you loss, Amy and family. <3

“ We are sorry for your loss. I worked with Travis for a few years at the state hospital, and he was a childhood friend of my father, Charles Curtis. I know he will be missed.

Travis was so dear to us. We spent many wonderful hours with he and his precious Barbara. He was a very good friend to Al and they spent lots of time "solving the world's problems" . He was a joy to us and will be missed greatly. Al and Shelta Etheredge

“ I met Mr Travis through his Son Adam. He was quite a man. I always enjoyed his company as s well as his wisdom. He was smart and very encouraging. Praying with him was one of his many blessings to my wife and I. I loved him like a Dad and will miss and cherish our friendship. Rest high on that mountain. Love you Michael and Cyndi
