

Trey Bowling

December 31, 1970 - July 24, 2021

A funeral service for Orren Haskell (Trey) Bowling, III, 50, of Rusk, will be held at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, July 27, 2021 at First Baptist Church in Rusk. The service will be under the direction of Wallace-Thompson Funeral Home with Pastor Jan Michael Pate officiating. Burial will follow at Walkers Chapel Cemetery, Reklaw.

Born on December 31, 1970, in Rusk, Texas, Trey was the adored son of Sharon Jenkins Bowling and the late Orren Haskell Bowling, Jr. Through his childhood, Sharon referred to him as “Trey Trey”. The name stuck around throughout his life because it so perfectly matched his handsome looks, charming smile, big blue eyes, and fun-loving personality. He graduated from Rusk High School in 1989, and continued his education at Stephen F. Austin State University where he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

Trey co-owned and operated East Texas Auto in Rusk. His favorite cars to buy were those for his three girls. Most recently, he beamed with pride as he pulled up with Annie Elizabeth’s first cars, her Little Tykes Cozy Coupe and her hot pink Mercedes ride-on.

Trey became a girl-dad in the early nineties, and from that point forward his life revolved around two beautiful blonde-headed little girls. One of his favorite girl-dad roles was that of softball coach. He cherished those memories, and in September, even posted a warning to young parents at how quickly those times pass with your children. It's as if he would have loved a chance to redo the girls' childhood at a slower pace to soak it all in again. He could not have been more proud of his girls in the most recent years though. He gained the name Aggie Dad watching them both cross the stage at college graduation and walking them both down the aisle on their most gorgeous days gaining yet another name, father-in-law. His newest name, PawPaw might just take the cake. Another name he treasured was Uncle Trey being a very proud boy-uncle.

Trey was a friend to many, a smile that brightened a room, a helper to anyone in need, and the biggest Tom Brady fan you could ever know. He referred to him as the GOAT and would love a chance to defend that claim with anyone that challenged it. He was a lover of sports, playing golf, coaching softball, and watching all levels of football.

Trey is preceded in death by his father and nephew, Parker Covington.

Trey is survived by his mother, daughters and sons-in-law, Alison and Brent Jones of Bullard, Juliann and Jacob Cheatham of Dallas, granddaughter, Annie Elizabeth Jones, nephew that he considered a son, Caleb Ferrara, sisters, Sharla Covington, Shana Ferrara and husband Ken, nephews, Conner Covington, Carter Hutchison, and Gregory Ferrara.

Pallbearers are Brent Jones, Jacob Cheatham, Caleb Ferrara, Trey Devereaux, Carter Hutchison, Tyler Baker, Conner Covington, Gregory Ferrara, Jake Ocker, and Steven Norton.

Donations may be made to the Rusk Tree of Promise, specifically for the Dream Tree, P.O. Box 605, Rusk, Texas 75785. He had the biggest heart and got so much joy from giving to others, especially at Christmas. His daughters wish that you would continue his legacy by paying it forward.

“ Trey Bowling

“ My daddy taught us to love big, to be kind to people, and to always give 110%. As much as he loved sports, he taught us that there were so many more important things than winning a game. He once told me that his very favorite sports memory with me was just the two of us staying in a motel and playing battle. He would go against any team I was rooting for, just to be able to call and aggravate me. I would always take the bait, and I loved every second of it! "You have to be Trey's daughter" has always been one of my very favorite things to hear. I am, and always will be, so proud to be "Trey's daughter" (and my momma's too!).

I know I am a little late on this, but thank you all for sharing these sweet memories - I have probably read them 100 times already!

“ One night after a few of us had golfed all day, we decided to take Trey’s Jeep out to my deer lease. It was Trey, myself, Brian Raiborn and Sam Raiborn. We were having a large time, doing what most guys do at the deer lease, when we drove up on some honey bee boxes. I don’t remember the exact time of year but it was cold enough that the bees weren’t swarming around the boxes and could hardly fly. It was at this point, and with a little liquid courage, that we decided we should open up one of the boxes and take some fresh honeycomb out for us to eat... In the midst of removing the lid and the honeycomb we somehow ended up with bees all over our clothing without us knowing. We all got back in the Jeep (remember this is 4 grown men in a 2-door Jeep) and kept cruising around, enjoying the fresh honeycomb with the heater blowing. It was at this point when the bees got warm enough to come alive. What happened next was something like a Chinese fire drill with all of us trying to exit the Jeep at the same time while Trey was trying to get the Jeep stopped all while being under attack. I don’t remember how many of us were stung that night or how many times because we were all laughing until we cried during the process. We learned that night honey was just as good store bought in a squirt bottle.

This was just one of many stories of Trey that I can tell without any of us getting into too much trouble now. He was one of a kind.

“ Trey was a brother. We spent much of our lives together and knew each other since toddlers. We were at each other's houses very often, played all sports together, went to church camps, football camps, lifeguards, just about everything together. A memory about Trey is that he never met a stranger. In high school when someone new moved to town Trey was always the first person to welcome them, spend time with them, and get them introduced to everyone. Trey was so charismatic and was the life of any party. I loved him and I will miss him.

“ Trey always treated me like one of his own. I have so many wonderful memories growing up that I will cherish forever, a lot of mine also include the ball field! ❤️ He always had a smile on his face and he had a heart of gold!! His girls were his world and everyone that knew him, knew that! He will be missed so much.

“ Three things that instantly pop into my head when I think about Trey. One, he had the most amazing way of genuinely making you feel loved and welcome. No matter what. If you were connected to anyone in his family, you were his people. He gave everything to anyone and his home was always open to you even when he wasn’t there. Two, he had more daughters than Ali B and Hoot. He treated all their teammates as his own and loved them all. He was at every game leaning over the gym railing or standing along the fence line supporting each one and there to give a hug and usually buy dinner after. Third, he was the first one to ever give me a hard time about Tag and his helmet. He use to ask where it was when we were in the gym and pretend like he didn’t recognize him without it when when came by the house. When Easton came along and I sent him a picture he asked “Where’s his helmet?” Trey loved big and if you knew him you felt it! ❤️

“ I remember the first time I saw Trey. Orren and Sharon were good friends with my mom and dad. So after he was born, they brought him out to our house and I got to hold him. He had the most beautiful eyes and a happy baby. He still had those gorgeous eyes, but he had a big heart and was loved by many. He definitely loved his family, that was evident in his life. I shared on Jake's post one little thing he did for me, but in all reality it was not small but just a person who cared for others. Orren gave My husband his first job working offshore and also coached him in boxing. Trey had many of his Dad's traits by caring and wanting the best for others and invested his life doing so for many kids just like Sharon and Orren as Sharon was always supporting us kids too! I am deeply sorry for the Bowling family 🙏

“I'll never forget soon after Jacob started dating Juliann, I found myself in Rusk completely out of gas and no wallet. (There was a logical excuse) Kara & Juliann had gone to Tyler. I was mortified to call Trey who I'd only met a couple of times. He was there in 5 minutes to try to fill up my car!! I made him stop at $20 but he didn't want to. I paid that back to Juliann and my guess is she never gave it to him!!!!!! Leaving him to think I never repaid it! He didn't even hesitate to come rescue me. I was embarrassed and he kept laughing insisting it was not a big deal. I have heard over and over how much he helped people out. I was lucky enough to witness it myself.

“ I spent many hour’s with Trey as a little girl. He was always Coach Trey! I can always remember after a game win or lose, we would have a meeting and he was always the one coach who could never stop smiling. Rather he knew we could’ve done better or proud of what we did do, he was always smiling. When I would run into him at the store or anywhere, he would always hug my neck, and tell me to take care of my babies. He will be missed by so many!! My thought and prayers for Ali and Juliann. 💜
