“ Our hearts are heavy and we are very sad to hear of your loss. He is in heaven now and just like here on earth he is trying to tell everyone what to do and how to do it. Harry was a good husband, father, grand father, son, brother and uncle. I have so many good memories of Harry, Lester and you guys that it fills my memories with happiness and joy. We will miss him a lot.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time and these hours. And although miles and times have separated us, please know the love for all of you is in our hearts and will remain forever. It is difficult to have memories of our youth without Harry and the rest of your family--and those memories will keep your family alive forever in our hearts throughout the end of time. From Mark and his hamsters and GI Joe, Uncle Harry and his slick-backed hair, Aunt Lester and her Tab cola and Diet-Rite, just Bimbo in general, Julie and her friendly nature, and Monty and his vibrant blue eyes. They will love on forever with us.

Take care of each other. Your parents would want that for you more than anything.
